Foreword

Four years of study, friends and play,
Of growing forward day by day,
Of learning more and more;
The time has come, ere we could guess
When we must leave dear J. H. S.
The Class of Thirty-four.

These pages tell of Freshman days,
Then how we followed Sophomore ways,
Ere Junior name we bore;
And now as Seniors we may claim
To give this Annual our own name—
The Class of Thirty-four.

To our fair city thanks we send,
For it has always been the friend
Of students o'er and o'er;
We pledge that in the coming years,
We'll be courageous, show no fears—
The Class of Thirty-four.

Our love and loyalty we would show
To the best High School that we know
From east to western shore;
And may it always point with pride
Because four years it was the guide
To splendid Thirty-four.

Dedication

We, the Annual Staff, dedicate this book to Coach Janis P. Francis and his 1934 Red Devils who brought fame to our city and school by being the first Jeffersonville team to participate in the semi-finals of the state basketball tournament.

THE SCHOOL

The Jeffersonville Public High School was built in 1910. In 1931 the addition was completed which includes the Junior High School and the gymnasium. At present the high school houses 690 pupils and the junior high, 276 pupils.

Class History

In the fall of 1930 we started across the sea of education on the good ship "Greater Knowledge" under the leadership of Miss Mary K. Voigt. At first the water was clear and blue, and our ship glided smoothly along. We feasted on little fishes called English, History, Algebra and Citizenship which were swimming about in the water.

Those who weathered the storms of the first lap began the second. But it was on this lap that our hearts were saddened by the death of our beloved leader, Miss Voigt. Mr. H. B. Vorgang then took command of our ship. The sea was getting rougher. Some were already seasick and wanted to turn back, but the brave pushed on toward their goal. The officers were: Ruth Howard, president; Joy Prentice, secretary; Kathryn Roederer, treasurer.

The water was calm when we started the third lap. Misses Ada Frank and Leonora Enlow were chosen as sponsors, and we sailed majestically on. The officers chosen were William Dobson, president; Ruth Howard, vice president; Margaret McIver, secretary; Eugene Butler, treasurer. Huge monsters called Latin, English, Health, and Bookkeeping swam in the water. Some of the feint of heart fell overboard and were carried under by these creatures, while the courageous conquered them. As we neared the end of this lap the crew of our ship entertained that of the ship which had started a year before us. This was the Junior-Senior Reception.

We now began the final lap, with the following officers: Margaret McIver, president; Robert Long, vice president; Kathryn Brumbach, secretary; Eugene Butler, treasurer. A group was chosen to compile a book called "The Annual". Another group directed by Miss Katherine Hines produced the Senior Play entitled "This Amazing Generation." We were nearing our goal. The voyage was almost finished. We could see "Success" shining in the distance. As we sailed across the "finish line," we were rewarded with a golden crown "Graduation."

Jeffersonville High School

are invited to attend

An "Auld Lang Syne" Ball

May 11, 1945, 8 P. M.

Fitzpatrick Hotel, New York City

Given by Madame Margaret McIver

The above is a copy of the invitation sent to every member of our class. Virginia Dierking rushed up from the desk and said, "Margie Glaser, guess what! We are going to have a class reunion." Just as we were discussing it, Eugenia Weber called up to find out if there was any mail. Of course she was thrilled, but she was disappointed at not receiving a letter from Jeffersonville. She was engaged to a French duke, but was thinking seriously of breaking her engagement and marrying Charlie Jones, coach of old Jeff. High.

We decided that we must get new dresses for the grand occasion. Of course we went to "Rudolph's", an exclusive dress-making establishment run by our old classmate, Dorothy. We called a taxi which was driven by Ben McCartin. He told us that he would not be able to attend because of his business.

At last the evening of the ball came. When we drove up in front of the glamorous Hotel Fitzpatrick (owner, Dot. Fitzpatrick), the door of the cab was opened by the impressive doorman, Dick Miles. He told us that we were among the late arrivals, so we hurried in. In our haste we almost collided with a frail, little woman who was walking down the hall. In spite of the change, we recognized her as Edith Bruner. She told us that she had married Jimmy Kennedy ten years ago. He was holding a job on the newspaper of Mildred Sparkman. It seems that while out after a news story, he became so deeply interested that he forgot to come home. So she divorced him and was now married to Eugene Montgomery.

As we entered the reception hall, we were very much impressed by the beauty of its decorations. We were admiring it when a gentleman standing near the door, told us that the work had been done by Eugene Butler, a famous interior decorator. We did not recognize the man with whom we were talking, so he laughingly introduced himself, Kenneth Duffy—but as fat as Kate Smith.

Madame McIver spied us about this time, and came rushing over to greet us. She told us that some of our classmates would not be able to attend. LaVaughn Haymaker had sent word that they were having a flood in Charlestown and that the townspeople were unable to get out. Ruth Howard Allen, the wife of Captain Leslie Allen, was cruising with her husband in South American waters and it would be impossible for them to make it back in time. Roberta Finch was in France studying voice. Coach Emma Dale Allen has her All-Star National Basketball team in Texas. As this was her busy season, she could not leave. Orville McCoy and Professor Robert Long were hiding themselves in a laboratory in Nevada doing scientific research.

The orchestra started playing at this time and two gentlemen came up and asked us to dance. One of them was Phil Higdon, who was still good-looking in spite of the grey hair at his temples. He told us that he had become a jockey. The other man was Charlie Hendron. He told us that he was in love with an actress, Millie Waisner, but that she refused to marry him because he had a job painting snakes on circus tents and she abhorred snakes.

When we were directly in front of the orchestra, the music stopped. We turned to greet our friend, Irvin Collins. Mary Louise Clapp and her husband, Harry Sperzel, were members of the orchestra. H. G. Willham also belonged to the group. Irvin informed us that his wife would now appear on the program. There was a tremendous applause as Marcellyn McFadden Collins danced out to do an inspiring butterfly dance.

The next number on the program was an act by the John Heubi Theatrical Company. The leading lady was Kathryn Brumbach, who appeared opposite Herbie Bricker. In the chorus were Hazel Lilly, Nancy Ditzler, Henrietta Brindle, Bernadine Brendel, Marie Schaffer and Mable Hensler.

During the intermission, we were talking to Katherine Pancoast, who was a missionary in Africa. She was able to attend the ball as she was home on leave of absence. She told us that Hollis and Mary Stoner were joint leaders of 4H clubs in Indiana. We also found out that Helen Worthington and Gladah Meade were married and lived in Jeffersonville. They had written Katherine that Dave Rauth was still running a restaurant in the old home town.

We then met Jane Cook who was a swimming instructor in a northern camp for girls. We began to realize Miss Danners's influence when we heard that Frances McCammon was a physical education instructor in a school in Indiana and that Joy Prentice was the athletic supervisor in one of the eastern colleges.

James Clark owned a chain of dairies in all the leading Indiana cities. Martha Lewis was writing articles for Woman's Home Companion. Jack Yates was in charge of the Fruit Growers' Union of the southern states. Lois LaDuke is president of the School of Foreign Languages.

Then who should walk up but Cleo Elliott. He informed us that he was the national leader of the Boy Scouts of America. He added that Jack Bott was coaching in Ohio.

We looked up to see a stunning lady coming toward us. As she drew near, we recognized Florence McBride. She had just arrived, having flown all the way from California where she managed a dressmaking establishment. Ruth Holzbog was a designer in Florence's shop, but due to pressing business engagements she was unable to leave. At the time, Ruth was busy designing a summer wardrobe for Adele Hunkler, a society leader in Los Angeles.

Mary Alice McCann came up just then. She told us that she was teaching Health in a high school in Illinois. We decided that as the evening was almost over, we would walk around to see some of the rest of our friends. We found Marshall Brothers sitting in a secluded corner talking to Catherine Masters. We learned that he was owner of a large chicken farm and that Catherine was a radio star—the present-day Kate Smith. The house detective came by. He told us that some unruly people outside had tried to crash the door. The detective we recognized as Robert Casey.

The remaining part of the program was presented at this time. The master of ceremonies was little Robert Prentice. He announced that he had received a few more telegrams from some members of the class who could not be there. He read one from Helen Benson. She sent her regards to everyone and said that she was married and living in Sellersburg. The next telegram was from Ernie and Martha Sanford who had just eloped.

Robert was interrupted by William Dobson who was known as "Radio's Broken-Hearted Lover". He sang a few stirring melodies. Next on the program was little Jo Beutel, who gave a recitation about our old school days which stirred up old memories and brought tears to our eyes. Thelma Trompeter was a Broadway star and she gave one of her most successful song and dance numbers.

The crowd was then asked to remain quiet for a short while and Alan Wilson, a photographer, took a picture of the group.

We decided that if we were to see all of our friends, we had better hurry. We met Elvin Bartle then who was a successful farmer and also president of the Indiana Farm Bureau. He told us that James Braunbeck, Charles Ellwanger, and Howard Snyder were playing professional baseball. They were with the Kentucky Colonels at this time and were making quite a success of it.

Arthur Brumbach, who was business manager of the Hotel Fitzpatrick came by and stopped for a moment to speak to us. He pointed out Louis Pennington, who was a noted scientist. Louis had just returned from a trip to South America.

Dorothy Metz came along. She was now the private secretary of the president of the Courier-Journal and Louisville Times. She had asked for permission to cover the reception for that paper. She had collected some information which was news to us. Gertrude Lewman was teaching at the University of Southern California. Martha Wallace and Elizabeth Payne were joint owners of a beauty salon. Virginia Hopper was a nurse in a Chicago hospital. Martha Mode was a doctor in Muncie. Anna Bizer owned a large shoe store in Saint Louis. Thomas Carroll, with his partner, Thompson Childress, was making a big success of a garage. Dorothy also added that Ray Hamaugh was purser on board the S. S. U. S. and Albert Holden was in Hollywood directing film production, in which Thelma Goldsborough was playing.

Clarence Roederer stepped up to speak to us. He said that he was a buyer for the Charles Hughes Dry Goods Store in Chicago. Leora Jacobs was a reporter for the New York Times and was covering the ball for her paper. She had just returned from a visit to Jeffersonville and so of course, she had much to tell us. Faye Stanforth was modeling for the Golden Rule Store there. Fern Sarles owned a hat shop. Nora Ogle was teaching in the Rose Hill School. Arminta Diebel was a feature writer for the Courier-Journal. Ernest Tracy was the owner of a taxi company on Wall Street.

Don Staniford strolled by. He had been in New York City for several months working as a chemist. He had come to New York from Indianapolis. He said that Wayne Trinkle was running a restaurant; that Chris Weidner was a politician; Anna Lee Adcock, a clerk in a department store. He also said that he had heard that Alice Childs had married and was living in Detroit.

Rowan Lynch and his wife, the former Bessie Cox, said that they had come all the way from their home in Clarksville to attend the ball. With them was Mildred Beatty who was operating a beauty shop in Louisville.

Someone had turned the radio on and we heard the announcer give the names of Dorothy Fogarty and Jeannette Dodson. They sang several numbers, one of them being dedicated to the class of 1934. On the same program, we heard Mary Long playing her violin.

Henry Fuhry was late in arriving as he had been giving an address at a Hi-Y meeting. He was the president of the National organization, he told us that Park Lawrence was running a rabbit farm in Arizona. William Hollenbach was coaching basketball in Evansville. Ruthjeanne Carr was modeling for Girard Vorgang, the artist. Thelma Applegate was posing for the Palmolive advertisements for keeping that school girl complexion. Henry also said that he had stopped in to see Wilbur Tetly at the hospital. He was a race car driver and had his leg broken in his last wreck. J. C. Morris was a doctor there.

We saw Doris Crandall as she was leaving. She was a night club hostess and it was time for her to start work. We also met Mrs. Gertrude Waterbury Thompson. She had flown over from Cleveland with Ryon Cassidy as a pilot.

At last the orchestra was playing "Home, Sweet Home" so we put on our wraps and bid our hostess good-night. As our cab whizzed through the streets, we were all thinking how good it was to see our friends again and wondering what the next ten years would bring.

IN MEMORY OF

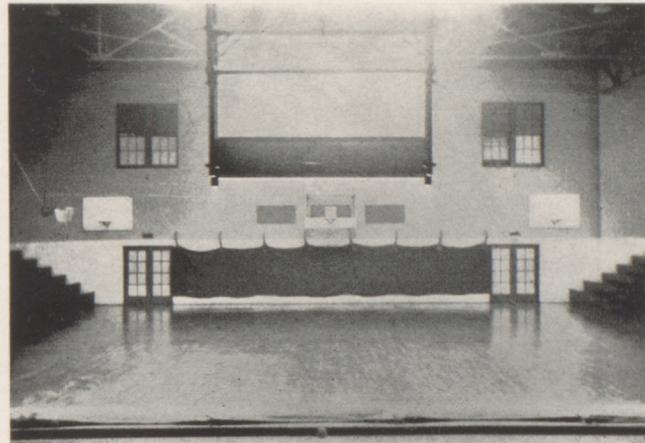

DAVID "SNOOKS" HENDRON

Born - July 8, 1917

Died - March 18, 1934

A member of the Junior class and the varsity basketball team, he was popular with both teachers and pupils.

SPORTS

The Jeffersontown High School Gymnasium is a part of the new addition to the school erected in 1931. It has a seating capacity of 2100 and contains a spacious stage.

Varsity Basketball

The Red Devils of 1933-34 turned out to be one of the best teams ever to represent the Jeffersonville High School. With a team composed entirely of Juniors and Sophomores, Coach Francis took the Devils to the semi-finals of the state tournament at Indianapolis, a feat which had never before been accomplished by a Jeffersonville team.

After a slow start during which the line-up was shifted many times, the boys started clicking and from that time on they made it tough for the opposing teams. Their season record shows three defeats and eighteen victories. In tournament play they showed exceptional strength by winning the Sectional and Regional and two games at the State before losing to Technical High of Indianapolis. Andres and Adams were placed on All-State teams, but they were not the only good ball players. Every man on the team did his best when called upon.

Besides playing wonderful ball, the fellows displayed some of the best sportsmanship ever shown on a basketball floor. Everywhere they played, they were praised for their sportsman-like conduct as well as for their playing ability. Our school and city have a right to be proud of our Red Devils.

Second Team

The Jeffersonville second team was composed entirely of Freshmen and Sophomores this year and the boys should prove very valuable to the Coach in the years to come. The Seconds won only six of their thirteen ball games, but they were always trying hard and showed a good fighting spirit. The boys played several high school varsity squads and this probably accounts for some of their defeats. They played better ball in the second semester after the addition of several new men. Coach Francis also had charge of the second team this year in order to acquaint these boys with his style of play.

VARSITY

NORMAN "NOD" ADAMS

Two men from the Jeffersonville Red Devils were placed upon All-State teams this year, and "Nod" was one of them. He is a Junior in school this year. He has played with the team for two years and has always given his best on the basketball court. This year he teamed with "Bill" Johnson in captaining the team. "Nod" plays center position.

WILLIAM "BILL" JOHNSON

"Bill" is one of the few fellows who have made the Jeff. varsity squad in his freshman year. He is now a Junior and has one more year of basketball. Sickness and a bad ankle kept Bill out of a few games, but when he played he showed himself valuable as both an offensive and defensive player. He plays guard and was co-captain this year with "Nod."

ERNEST "JUNIE" ANDRES

"Junie" is the other All-State man from Jeff. High this year. He plays guard position and is one of the best players for taking the rebounds that Jeff. has ever turned out. Last year "Junie" played with the second team for one semester, but was advanced to the varsity at mid-term. He is a Junior and will be back next year.

CHARLES "C" RAUTH

"C" plays one of the forward positions and plays it mighty well. He did not hit his stride until the second semester, but after that time he fit in perfectly with the fast-breaking offense used by Coach Francis. He is only a Sophomore and has two more years on the squad. He is especially adept at crisp shots, and is valuable to the team.

KENNETH "SPIDER" GROTH

"Spider" teams up with Rauth at the forward positions and does a very good job of it. He is one of the most consistent men on the team and is always in the game fighting hard. He probably is a better defensive player than an offensive one, but he always manages to get a few points. "Spider" is a Junior this year.

GLENDALE "GLENNIE" PHILLIPS

"Glennie" is a player that fits well in the line-up either at a forward or guard position. Whenever Coach Francis needs a substitute he is right there ready to go. "Glennie" is a Junior and a former second team man.

MALCOLM "SUGAR" CAIN

"Sugar" is another capable substitute and is always fighting hard when he is in the game. Last year he was advanced from the second team to the varsity squad near mid-year. This is "Sugar's" last year on the team.

MELVIN "IKEY" REYNOLDS

"Ikey" was advanced last year to the varsity along with Andres and Cain. This year he was right on the job to fill the positions of either Andres or Johnson. He is handicapped by his small stature, but he is a real fighter and should be a big help next year.

WILBUR "STINKY" DAVIS

"Stinky" is one of Coach's best substitute forwards. He proved his value in both the Sectional and State tournaments. Last year he was a forward on the second team, but this year he just couldn't be kept off the varsity squad. "Stinky" is also a Junior.

WINSTON "TUBBY" THOMPSON

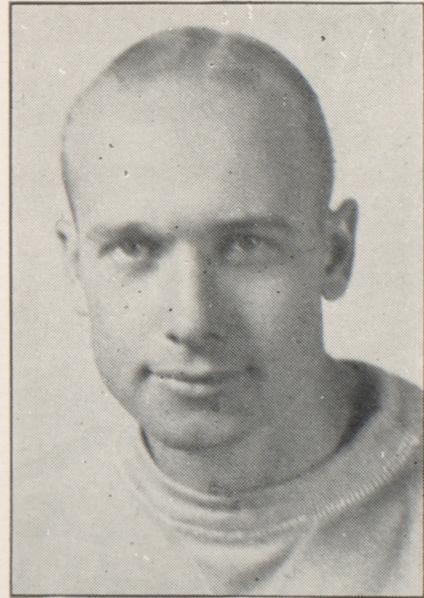

"Tubby" although the largest man on the squad, handles himself well on the floor and is a valuable man whenever a substitute center is needed. He started several games and gave "Nod" Adams a real battle for the center position. "Tubby" is also a Junior and an ex-second team man.

COACH AND HENDRON

COACH JANIS P. FRANCIS

In his fourth year at Jeffersonville, Coach Francis reached his goal. He took the Red Devils to the State tournament at Indianapolis. Coach has been looking forward to doing this ever since he started his coaching career. He has been in tournament play six times. In these six years, he has won two county tourneys, three sectionals and has been in the finals of the Regionals three times. In 1928-29 he was defeated in the regional finals by Frankfort, the state champions of that year, by a score 19-16. In 1932-33 the Red Devils were defeated by one point in the last few seconds of play against Bedford. This year, however, he brought his team through the regional and advanced to the semi-finals of the state tourney. By selecting his team from Juniors and Sophomores, he has assured himself of an experienced ball club for next season. All of the fans realize that much credit must be given the Coach for our success in basketball circles and are confident of future success in the years to come. The coach was assisted this year by Charles Hendron, captain of last year's team.

COACH FRANCIS

Varsity Baseball

With the basketball season coming to a close, the Red Devils are now turning their attention to baseball. Baseball was revived in this school three years ago. The Red Devils in the past two years have given a good account of themselves and are looking forward to a successful season this year.

About fifty boys answered the call for baseball, including the following letter-men from last year: Andres, Groth, Cain, Reynolds, Lewis, Hubbuch, Ellwanger, Kramer, and Braunbeck. Many promising candidates who may add their names to the Red Devil roster are McCulloch, Brumbach, Hobson, Rauth, Schiller, Worrall and others who will probably develop as the season goes on.

Our baseball schedule is made up primarily of teams from southern Indiana and the Louisville schools. Teams such as Male, Manual, St. Xavier, Seymour, K. M. I., Brownstown, Crothersville, and Leavenworth who always boast class A teams, are again on the schedule. An interesting baseball campaign is anticipated.

Due to the fact that our baseball season is limited this spring the boys have been working long and hard each evening. Without exaggeration, we feel that we will have a successful baseball season and possibly bring the Falls Cities championship to old Jeff High this year.

First Row—Elizabeth Gutermuth, Helen Dorman, Georgia Vorgang, Martha Jackson, Frances Eastman, Thelma Trompeter, Mary L. Clapp.

Second Row—Miss Danner, Mary Stoner, Mary Manners, Lavaughn Faymaker, Hollis Stoner, Josephine Buetel, Katherine Brumbach, Doris Crandall, Martha Rauth, Mildred Waisner, Emmadale Allen.

The Girls' Athletic Association

The Girls' Athletic Association of the Jeffersonville High School which was organized in the year 1931 under the direction of Miss Miriam Danner, Physical Education Teacher, has made wide strides in its few years, toward promoting sports in the school for girls. The organization has an active membership of thirty girls all working to interest more girls in sports.

The Athletic Association has as its President, Joy Prentice who has done her part the past two years in making the association successful. The organization, I am sure will miss her, as this is her senior year and she must give up her office here, possibly to regain it in college.

The association offers as a reward to those girls who participate in seven sports each year, the following: first year, emblem; second year, sweatshirt; third year, pin or necklace; fourth year, a "J" sweater and stripes denoting the number of years you have participated.

The activities offered by the G. A. A. are: Class Basketball, Varsity Basketball, Baseball, Tumbling, Archery, Track, Canoeing, Rowing, Bicycling, Skating, Horseback Riding, Soccer Football, Volley Ball, Hiking, Tennis, Dancing Classes, Basketball and Baseball accuracy throws, Soccer skill tests, Swimming, Horseshoe pitching, Rowing and Physical education classes.

Volley Ball practices were held on Wednesday and Friday noons and many girls attended these practices. At the close of the season in December the Seniors, who probably had more pep than any other team, were defeated by the Freshman after a good game. Basketball began immediately after the close of volley ball. Class teams were organized under the following names with their captain: Senior Royalties, Thelma Trompeter, only one to come out with only one defeat; Senior Hotshots, Emmadale Allen; Junior Wiggleworms, Valma Linek; Junior Hotpeppers, Virginia Prather; Sophomore Panthers, Georgia Vorgang; Freshman Dickey Birds, changed each week; Freshman Blue Eagles, Leland Lewis; Green Freshman, Jo Eadens. In the final round of the tournament the Junior Hot Peppers defeated the Junior Wiggleworms to claim the Intra-mural championship. Lou Werner had the highest percentage of points for the season and Emmadale Allen was second.

Much enthusiasm was aroused by Soccer this year. The teams were chosen, and had a very good season. The Red team won the tournament. This team was captained by Elizabeth Gutermuth. Approximately 50 girls took part in this sport. More practice and a Class tournament is to be held this spring.

Swimming was carried on at the Y. W. C. A. as usual with many girls taking part.

The Tumbling Team worked long and hard this year and turned out many first rate tumblers.

Baseball was held in the fall of '33 and will continue in the spring of '34. Track was not carried on very extensively this year due to the uncertainty of the weather.

The Varsity this year was composed of fifteen experienced girls most of whom were serving their second year. Emmadale Allen, clever captain of the 1934 squad, was one of the best forwards on the team. The girls first game against outside competition was a 40-3 victory for them over the Presbyterian Circle Team. Two more games are scheduled as this is written. A team picked to play at the same time the varsity plays, under the name of "Reserves", was captained by Kathryn "Tubby" Brumbach. Martha Jackson was Student Manager and proved an efficient one.

Sports in which the girls took part outside of school were Canoeing 40 hours, Rowing 40 hours, Bicycling 40 hours, Skating 40 hours, Horseback Riding 20 hours, Hiking 75 miles, Tennis 35 hours, Dancing Class 40 hours, Horseshoe Pitching 30 hours and Rowing on rowing machine 20 hours.

Archery was one of the new sports this year and probably caused more interest than any of the other new sports. 20 hours in Archery meant one credit toward a reward. Through loss of hard work the G. A. A.'s secured the money to buy Archery equipment and they feel sure their investment was a wise one. The visit to our school and instruction given by Mr. Philip Rounseville, nationally known authority on archery, was a high light in our year's program.

Many girls spent their E. C. A. periods in working for extra points. The girls work hard to get their points, but they all do it with a free will and they know they are spending their time profitably when they take part in sports because they build their bodies and make ever lasting friends, and at the same time gain a membership in the G. A. A. which is something any girl can be proud of.

The organization will lose fourteen girls on graduation day, but they will still be honorary members and will be welcome to come back to school in the years to come for meetings, and games and parties held by the G. A. A.'s at any time. The girls and their sponsor offer an invitation to every girl in the school, to join them next year in their work and their fun.

ORGANIZATIONS

The corner stone for the Jeffersonville Carnegie Public Library was laid in September, 1903. The Post Office building was erected a short time after this. These buildings are located in Warder Park.

OPERETTA

On April 27 the operetta, "An Old Spanish Custom," was given under the direction of Miss Genevieve Schlosser. It is a clever production, the book and lyrics being written by Estelle Merryman Clark and the music by Palmer Merryman Clark. The scenes are laid in southern California, but a Mexican atmosphere prevades throughout. The novel plot concerns the fight of the last scion of an old Spanish family to save his ancestral home from being sold through the treachery of his lawyer. The lines are quite modern and the music outstanding for its beauty and novelty.

The dances were directed by Miss Miriam Danner and the lines were coached by Miss Leone Voigt.

The following are the main characters:

KATHERINE DARLING	Ruth Davis	SILAS DAY	Richard Crickmer
BEATRICE THORNE	Martha Jane Frank	DON JOSE	Henry Kramer
STANLEY DARLING	Chester Wilcoxson	PATRICK MURPHY	Garland Taflinger

Second Row—M. Lewis, M. Sparkman, M. J. Mode, E. Allen, K. Brumbach, J. Buetel.
Third Row—R. Prentice, D. Staniford, A. Brumbach, H. Snyder, L. Allen.

The Edwin C. Hill chapter of Quill and Scroll was organized at the beginning of the 1933-34 school term, under the direction of Miss Sweeney.

The officers are Don Staniford, President; Martha Mode, Vice-President; Gertrude Waterbury, Secretary; Mildred Beatty, Treasurer.

The Hyphen was awarded second place in an international Quill and Scroll contest held at the close of school last year.

A yell-book sale was sponsored by the chapter for the purpose of acquainting the students with the school songs and yells.

The members of Quill and Scroll and Hi-Y held a contest to see which organization could sell the most copies of the Hyphen. Quill and Scroll won the contest. The profit was 53 per cent and 47 per cent respectively.

The meetings are held monthly at the homes of the members.

Journalism

First Row (Left to Right)—M. Sparkman, J. Prentice, F. McBride, R. Howard, Miss Sweeney, M. Glaser, K. Brumbach, J. Buetel, M. Beatty, L. Jacobs.
Second Row—G. Waterbury, A. Hunckler, M. Lewis, A. Diebel, V. Hopper, F. McCammon, G. Meade, A. Childs.
Third Row—L. Allen, C. Hendron, A. Wilson, N. Adams, A. Brumbach, E. Sanford, I. Collins, R. Cassidy, C. Hughes, J. Kennedy.

Journalism was added to the Jeffersonville curriculum in the fall of 1933. This class, however, had been initiated in newspaper work in English V and were the pioneer journalists introducing the Hyphen, the school paper.

The Hyphen, now in its second year, has increased its pages from four to six and is able not only to support itself but also to help other organizations.

Modern life demands a directed approach to the wide field of magazine and newspaper reading. Poor, unselective and uniformed straying in these weedy pastures is a major waste of time for grown people otherwise well educated and intelligent. It is the purpose of this course in journalism to convince students of the utility of periodical literature and lead them consciously to form standards which will aid them in choosing what they shall read for pleasure and profit from the hundreds of good, bad and indifferent magazines and newspapers that they see every day.

The laboratory work of the Journalism Class is done on the Hyphen under the direction of Miss Sweeney, in Room 105.

Band

Early in the year the High School Band was called upon to take part in the American Legion parade and it ably represented the school in the largest parade ever held in Jeffersonville. With a march to the Clark Monument in memory of George Rogers Clark and leading the "J" Club in their first "Pep Parade" the band was well prepared to start the musical entertainment and enthusiasm for the opening basketball game. On Friday morning, the 17th of November, the entire school saw the band in formation and drills and heard a special program of military and college music which started the basketball season on its way. At three games drills were performed for the basketball audience. At the last game—Bedford-Jeffersonville—a "B" and a "J" were formed with the respective school songs being played while in school formation. The High School Band is a growing organization and is keeping pace with the growth of Jeffersonville High School. Its future is very bright and its offers a wonderful opportunity for the musical expression of the students of Jeffersonville High School.

First Row—Robert Brunnemer, Charles Nachand, Jack Sperzel, H. G. Willham, Irvin Collins, Garland Nachand, Carl Baker, Elden Funk, Ross Callahan, George White.

Second Row—E. A. Smith, Director, Robert Prentice, Keith Antz, John Knowland, Chester Wilcoxson, Girard Vorgang, Marvin Akers, Richard Deible, John Heubi, Richard Crickmer, Drum Major.

Orchestra

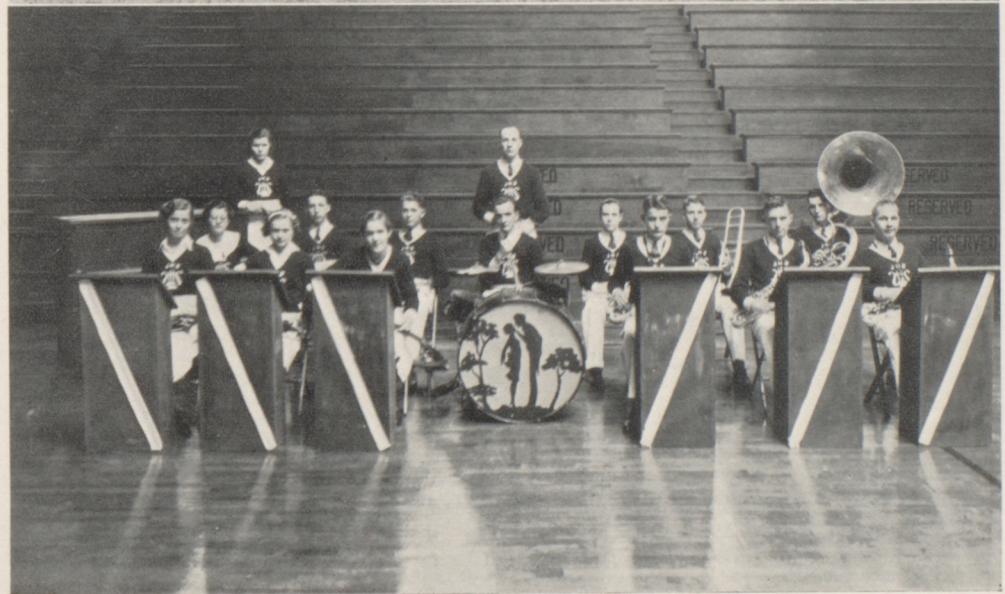

Soloist, Marilynn Reeder; Piano, Katherine Zimmer; Banjo, Mary Clapp; Drums and Soloist, Irvin Collins; Alto and Baritone Saxaphone, John Knowland; Alto Saxaphone and Clarinet, Carl Baker; Tenor Saxaphone and Clarinet, Harry Sperzel; Alto Saxaphone and Clarinet, Chester Wilcoxson; Violin, Barbara Cook; Sousaphone, Ernest Sanford; Trombone, Richard Woodruff; Hawaiian Guitar, Virginia Groher; Director, Mr. Smith.

With a touch of College Spirit in its Music the "Red and White Orchestra" has again had a successful year. In its small personnel are to be found a group of talented musicians. The school and city has had its support many times during the year. Its popularity and usefulness caused it to remain intact during the summer of 1933 and this gave the organization a good start in the present school year. Graduation lays a heavy hand, but with the large student body of Jeffersonville High School new members will be found to take the place of those who leave at the end of the year.

First Row—Mary Louise Clapp, Barbara Cook, Virginia Groher, Chester Wilcoxson, Carl Baker, John Knowland.

Second Row—Katherine Zimmer, Pianist, H. G. Willham, Garland Nachand, Irvin Collins, Jack Sperzel, Richard Woodruff, Ernest Sanford.

Third Row—Marilynn Reeder, Vocalist, E. A. Smith, Director.

First Row (Left to Right)—W. Steadman, E. Russ, N. Forsee, L. Allen, H. Fuhr, F. Koehler, R. Stirr.

Second Row—W. Andres, B. Meisner, J. Crickmer, P. Moser, C. Ellwanger, L. Hume, R. Hambaugh, J. Clark, H. Snyder.

Third Row—Mr. Callahan, R. Carroll, W. Matthews, R. Crickmer, I. Collins, R. Prentice, J. Yates, J. Dobbins, J. Huebi, D. Staniford, P. Higdon.

Hi - Y

The Hi-Y Club of the Jeffersonville High School is affiliated with the Louisville Y. M. C. A. The club this year has been working under difficulties due to the fact that there were only nine old members back in September. However, the membership has increased rapidly and is facing next year with bright prospects.

This organization under the guidance of its sponsor, Mr. C. C. Callahan, has presented several assembly programs. It entered a Hyphen-sales contest with the Quill and Scroll. The only sport in which it participated this year was a Water-Polo League composed of Hi-Y clubs from Male, Manual, Ahrens (Louisville, Kentucky, schools) and Jeffersonville. It finished second to the Male High group.

Officers of the club for the year 1933-34 were:

HENRY FUHRY	President
LESLIE ALLEN	Vice-President
FREDDIE KOEHLER	Secretary
RALPH STIRR	Treasurer

First Row—W. Vissing, G. Lewman, G. Waterbury, M. J. Mode, D. Bengal, C. Higgins, J. Bliss.
Second Row—E. Goyne, J. Heubi, B. Akers, C. Baker, R. Crickmer, W. Allen, G. Taflinger.

Student Council

Jeffersonville High School's first Student Council became a part of the school organization in December, 1933. Each home room elected one member to serve as a representative to this body. A student's election to the council was an award of merit, and each council member was expected to be an ideal student in all respects.

At the first meeting Richard Crickmer was elected president; Lindley Brubeck, vice-president; Martha Jane Mode, secretary-treasurer. The president appointed a committee to draw up a constitution and by-laws. These were reported at the second meeting and are now the permanent constitution for the organization.

The council meets regularly every Thursday after school in Room 10. It is the purpose of the organization to serve as a contact body between the students and the administration. Its efforts in this connection have all been very successful. A number of worth-while projects have been sponsored by the council--among them, a sportsmanship award for the basketball team, the junior high school spelling-bee medal, subscription drives for the Hyphen, grab-bag sale, articles for newspaper publicity in connection with worth-while school activities, and a number of a like nature.

The council ideals are of the highest type always supporting the administrative officials in their efforts to raise the standards of scholarship and conduct among the students of the Jeffersonville High School.

Commercial Club

The Commercial Club of 1933-34 is the largest of its kind in the history of the Jeffersonville High School. The sponsor, Mr. Paul Cockrill, has done much to make this club a success.

Meetings were held each Monday at the E. C. A. period. The club entertained the Junior Highland Senior High schools with a mock basketball game, March 1.

The club sponsored the second annual Sport Banquet March 27. A very large and enthusiastic crowd attended. The club also entered in the state commercial contest April 28 which was sponsored by the Ball State Teachers College of Muncie, Indiana.

The Officers of the Club are:

FAYE STANFORTH	President
MILDRED W AISNER	Vice-President
GERTRUDE LEWMAN	Secretary
JAMES KENNEDY	Treasurer

Martha Rauth, Virginia Dierking, Ruthjeanne Carr, Mary Louise Clapp, Joy Prentice, Helen Worthington, Thelma Applegate, Hollis Stoner, Mary Long, Catherine Masters, Mabel Hensler, Mary Alice McCann, Helen Benson, Mae Mannix, Roberta Finch, Adele Hunkler, Dorothy Rudolph, Dorothy Quick.

Cooking Class

At the beginning of the school year, sixteen girls enrolled in Miss Dorothy Kimbley's cooking class. They began their work by preparing simple but tasty foods, gradually working up until they were preparing the most difficult. Then came the study of preparing and serving breakfasts, luncheons and dinners.

Time was spent on learning how to serve meals. Then they put this into practice by serving breakfasts to the members of the class only. Then formal luncheons were served to two teachers with two girls acting as host and hostess. The concluding work was that of serving formal dinners in which the rest of the teachers were entertained.

The girls planned all the menus, color-schemes, made out grocery orders, and prepared and served all the foods.

First Row—M. Cain, M. Lynch, E. Weber, V. Dierking, D. Quick, N. Miller, P. Jones, M. Zwickel, F. McBride, T. Applegate, H. Stoner, H. Worthington, M. Lykins, F. Sarles, E. B. Stoner, V. Prather.

Second Row—M. Dixon, M. Stoner, Miss Frank, H. Benson, R. Finch, J. Dodson, Dorothy McCormack, L. Harris, E. Gutermuth, E. Seyfert, R. Schuler, K. Pancoast, L. Haymaker, O. Mitchell, M. A. McCann, Alileen Pawlick.

Fourth Row—D. Crandall, M. Hay, F. McCammon, K. Brumbach, D. Spangler, M. A. Stanforth, L. Werner, M. Rauth, M. J. Mode, J. Moser, J. Shannon, M. J. Frank, D. Coleman, J. Russ, C. Higgins, M. McBride, D. Wheeler.

Girl Reserves

The Girl Reserves' Club is one of the largest clubs in Jeffersonville High School. It is connected with the National Y. W. C. A., being the High School Girls' department of that organization.

Officers of the club are:

THELMA APPLIGATE	President
KATHRYN ROEDERER	Vice-President
MARTHA FRANK	Secretary
DOROTHY SPANGLER	Treasurer
MISS ADA FRANK	Sponsor

The club members enjoyed an "Old-Maids' Party" on December 5th. A beautiful candle-light service was held December 21, and twenty-two new girls were taken into the club as members. A Valentine Luncheon was enjoyed February 14. As a last farewell to the girls of the class of 1934, the other members of the club entertained them at the annual "Senior Tea."

Senior Play

The Senior Class of 1934, under the direction of Miss Katherine E. Hines, presented the three act play, "This Amazing Generation," in the High School Gymnasium, April 6, 1934. Music for the intermissions was furnished by the Red and White orchestra.

The following members of the class made up the cast:

FRED TURNER	Elvin Bartle
MILLY TURNER	Margaret McIver
DICK TURNER	Don Staniford
ANNE WHEELER	Marcelyn McFadden
FLORENCE	Ruth Howard
ECTASY	Margie Glaser
BOB ADAMS	Richard Miles
AMELIA PARKER	Faye Stanforth
JOE ANDERSON	William Dobson
MR. PARKER	Ernest Sanford
WANDA BARLOW	Eugenia Weber

Latin Club

JOHN HEUBI President
EUGENIA WEBER Vice-President
JEANETTE DODSON Secretary and Treasurer

The Latin Club under the sponsorship of Miss Frank includes the Latin 5 and 6 classes. The outstanding feature of the term was a Latin play presented by the members of the club.

The Argufiers

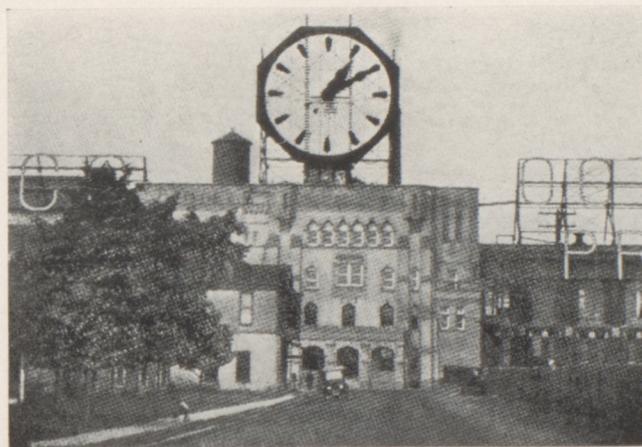

The Argufiers organized for the year '33-'34 on November 23, 1933, at which time the following officers were elected: President, Caroline Scott; Vice-President, Margie Glaser; Treasurer, Kathryn Brumbach; Secretary, Emmadale Allen; Miss Ruth Rose was Sponsor of the Club. Meetings were held every other week on Thursdays at which time the members debated on topics of interest.

Try-outs for the Debate Team were held and two teams were chosen. Those chosen were Ruth Cox, Dorothy Matthews, and Richard Diebel; Frances McCammon, Pat Healy, and Mark Jennings. These two teams met each other in two debates, the subject being, Resolved, that the United States should adopt the essential features of the British system of radio control and operation.

Last Will of 8A Class of 1934

We, the members of the 8A class of 1934, being of sound body and sane mind, do declare this to be our last Will and Testament.

To Mr. Vorgang we bequeath the good intentions of the class, trusting that he may find them realized in high school.

To Mr. Smith we leave the Penal Room and its fond memories.

To Miss Dobbins we leave Edith Lyle's poetic ability. She will appreciate it.

James Eversole's messy note book we leave to Miss Clayton. How she loves such books!

To Miss McKee we bequeath William Otto's gentlemanly conduct.

Lena Lyle's perfect music note book we leave to Miss Schlosser. It may inspire younger ones.

To Miss Kimbley we leave the memory of Edith Adams' broken dishes and Norma Andres' delicious cooking.

The perfect test paper of the 8A2 Class we leave to Miss Voigt. Happy memories!

To Miss Kalmbach we bequeath the splendid conduct of the 8A Classes. She loves good conduct.

Miss Poindexter is to have all the knowledge we ever acquired in Geography.

The sweet smiles of our big boys we leave to Miss Weber.

Jean Cohen's marching qualities we want Miss Danner to have.

To Miss Craig we leave our grammar note books as models for the other classes.

David Miles' ability to annoy we leave to our beloved coach.

To Mr. Callahan we bequeath all the shavings and sawdust left by the boys.

Berton Thompson's, Richard Spencer's and John Beal's winning ways with the girls we leave to the underclassmen.

The beautifully tinted finger nails of Gladys, Cletus, Juneith and Susie we leave to anyone who wants them.

The pretty brown eyes of Erma Himmelheber and Charlotte Kilfoil we leave to Eugenia Snider.

We want the slowest of the 7B's to have Leger's and Overstreet's improvement in work.

To Mildred Jones we bequeath Bessie Mae Smith's pretty green shirt.

The skill of Ernest Frederick and E. G. Read on the basketball floor we leave to the Jr. team of next semester.

We are leaving Virginia Dixon's and Margaret Whitkam's sly glances at the boys to Louise Miller.

Miriam Weinstein's straight A's we leave to Raymond Goldsborough.

We leave Wendell Scott's admiration of Mabel Smith to Gene Gearing.

Virginia Vissing's popularity in the school we leave to Sylvia Davis.

Ralph Bruner leaves his basketball tales to Harold George.

We leave Carol Karr's friendliness to Maud Carter.

Last Will of 8 A Class of 1934 (Cont.)

To T. J. Lally we leave Jack Worrall's star basketball plays.
Robert Brunnemer's big horn we leave to Billie Edwards.
We leave Jane Goodwin's and Betty Cain's ways with the boys to Mary Molck.
To Roger Wallace we leave Rufus Rodger's ability to tickle the ivories.
To Joseph Stubblefield we bequeath Mable Long's sweet smile and Kenneth Wayman's studiousness.
We leave Charlene Same's ebony locks to Frank Dilger.
Charles Miller's drum sticks we leave to Edward Gaither.
We bequeath to Jack Bales, Kathryn Finn's dimples.
To John Leone we leave Joseph Vorgang's school-girl complexion, and Edward Prall's neat appearance.
Juanita McCoy's height we leave to Willa Mae Bond.
J. B. LeSeure's and Richard Elliott's gentle ways be bequeath to Claude Leppert.
Harold Douglass' and Charles Heuser's timidity we leave to Jane Hendron.
To Jack Hughes we leave Martha Anne Russell's poetic genius and Icel Alford's seriousness.
We leave Mary Kehrt's pretty red curly hair to Rose Mary Miller.
We bequeath Hope Haas' jovial manners to Paul Scott.
We leave Mary Colvin's little giggly laugh to Junior Reese.
The bashfulness of Kenneth Smith and James Mayes we bequeath to Omega Murphy and Russell Austin.
To Argus Prather we leave Marvin Aker's musical genius.
Albert Hall's pouts we will to nobody.
Dorothy Parks and Marie Worthington's stick-to-itiveness we want the 7A2 class to have.
Doris Bottorff's questions and inattention are willed to Mildred George. She won't use them.
We leave Louise Grimes' freckles to Pauline Frazer, as they are considered beauty spots.
Richard Leach's fond memories of New Albany we leave to Warren Volmer.
To the 7B girls we bequeath Anna Mae Mackison's queer ways in Basketball.
We by all heirs to recognize these as our last wishes and beg the proper authorities to see that all bequests be duly and promptly awarded.

Junior High Prophecy

The 1934 Class of the Jeffersonville Junior High School was to have a reunion. The program given at the reunion was to be broadcast over Station GHH (owned and operated by George Hope Hass, Jr.). Everyone of the 1934 class was invited, but due to the forced landing of an airplane piloted by Icel Alford, Jr., Misses Lena Lyle, Carol Karr, Miriam Weinstein and Mr. Robert Brunemer were unable to attend the reunion.

They landed on an isolated island and the only thing left to do was to tune in on the radio and listen to the program given by their classmates.

As the dial was tuned the voice of the announcer, Rufus Graham Rodgers, Jr., brought the station announcement.

The overture was played by the Jeffersonville Symphony Orchestra directed by Harold Douglas. The personnel of the orchestra included Marvin Akers, Charles Miller, Berton Thompson, James Mayes, Richard Spencer, John Beal, Albert Hall, J. B. LeSeure, Kenneth Smith, and Overstreet Wilham.

The opening song was by the soprano voice of Virginia Vissing. This was followed by an interesting talk about the stratosphere by Jack Worrall, who had just returned from a newly discovered planet, "Finnime", named in honor of Kathryn Finn.

A short play was next presented reviewing our school life in Jr. High. The title of the play was "The Mirror of the Past." The important characters were: Principal, Joseph Vor-gang; Stenographer, Marie Worthington; English Teacher, Louise Grimes; Basketball Coach, Ernest Frederick; Geography Teacher, Jane Goodwin; Science Teacher, Edith Lyle; Arithmetic Teacher; Richard Leach; Gym Teacher, Mary Colvin; and the History Teacher, Cleatus Detrow.

A group of singers composed of Dorothy Parks, Edward Prall, E. G. Read, Hazel Lewis, Louis Grimes, Jean Cohen, and Richard Elliot sang "The Call of the Wild". The words were written by Wendel Scott and the music by Bessie Mae Smith.

A talk on the Art of Swimming was given by Junieh Warman, who had won the world's title for best swimming.

A spelling Bee was conducted in which Charlotte Kilfoil, Erma Himmelheber, and Charlene Same stood longer than any other members of the class. Charlotte succeeded in spelling the other two down.

A painting called "A Wild Buffalo Herd" was exhibited by Kenneth Wayman who had become a famous artist. So had David Miles.

The Eversole Hospital, owned by the rich Mr. James Eversole, featured Health talks by Dr. Ralph Bruner and his assistant nurses, Martha Ann Russell and Mary Kehrt.

The well known novelist, Norma Andres, gave a review of her latest book, "Without Hope Life is Empty."

Reducing exercises were given by Betty Cain and Doris Bottorf. Next Juanita McCoy, Mable Long, and Susie Jordan brought forth and displayed a new creation dedicated to Edith Adams. The decorations of red and white were put on by William Otto, who had become a sign painter.

The program was concluded by the famous comedienne, "Annie, Ginnie, Gladys and Marg". We recognized the voices of Anna Mae Mackison, Virginia Dixon, Gladys Wright and Margaret Wilham.

We looked forward eagerly to receiving a copy of the Heuser News, Jeffersonville's daily newspaper, edited by Charles Heuser. We knew from his paper we could learn many interesting things about our reunion which were not broadcast over the radio.

Though we were extremely sorry we missed the reunion we were certainly thankful we lived in the twentieth century when one of the wonders of science, the radio, made this program possible.

Junior High....34	Scottsburg	7	Junior High....24	Howard Park	12

The Little Devils of Junior High, the future material for Jeff High enjoyed a fairly successful season winning nine of fifteen games. Although losing in both tournaments at Madison and Corydon, they gained some very valuable tournament experience which will be very beneficial to them later on.

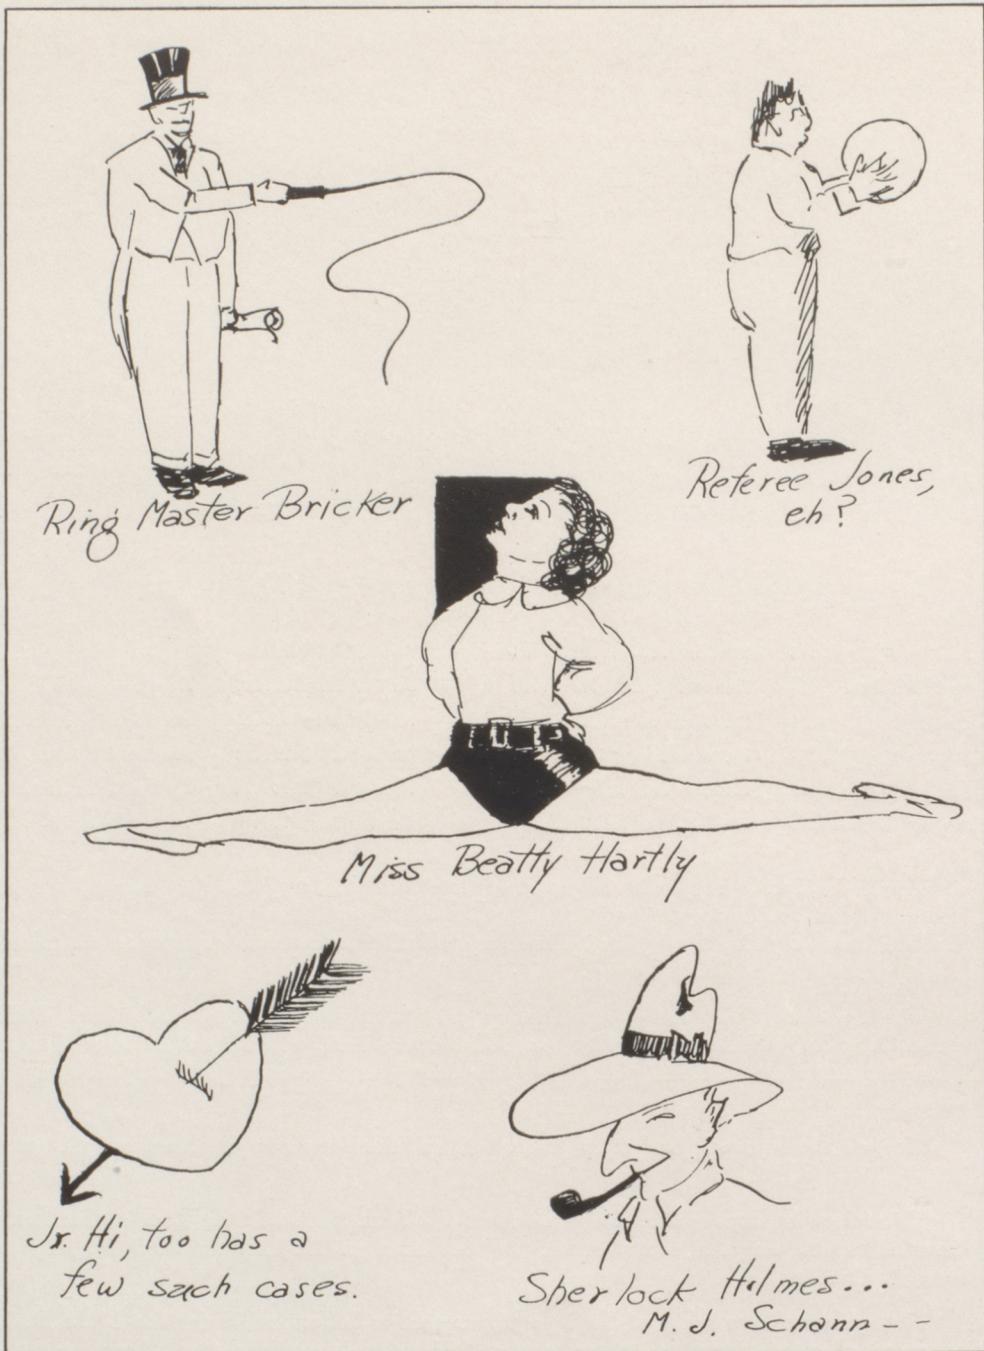

The Little Devils encountered some very good teams in their regular schedule. Teams such as Scottsburg, St. Augustine, Madison, and Howard Park, all of which boast good teams. This year they played fifteen games, next year they plan on twenty games for their regular schedule.

Most of the boys will be lost by graduation, but there are always more from the grades to take their places.

The following boys seemed to be the most consistent starters, Beal, Tomlin, Fredericks, Crandall, Watt, Vorgang and Worrall. As substitutes in the first semester Vorgang and Machmeyer saw quite a bit of action.

Next year we have hopes of having a tournament at Jeffersonville for the Little Devils, composed of teams from the larger Junior High Schools of Southern Indiana.

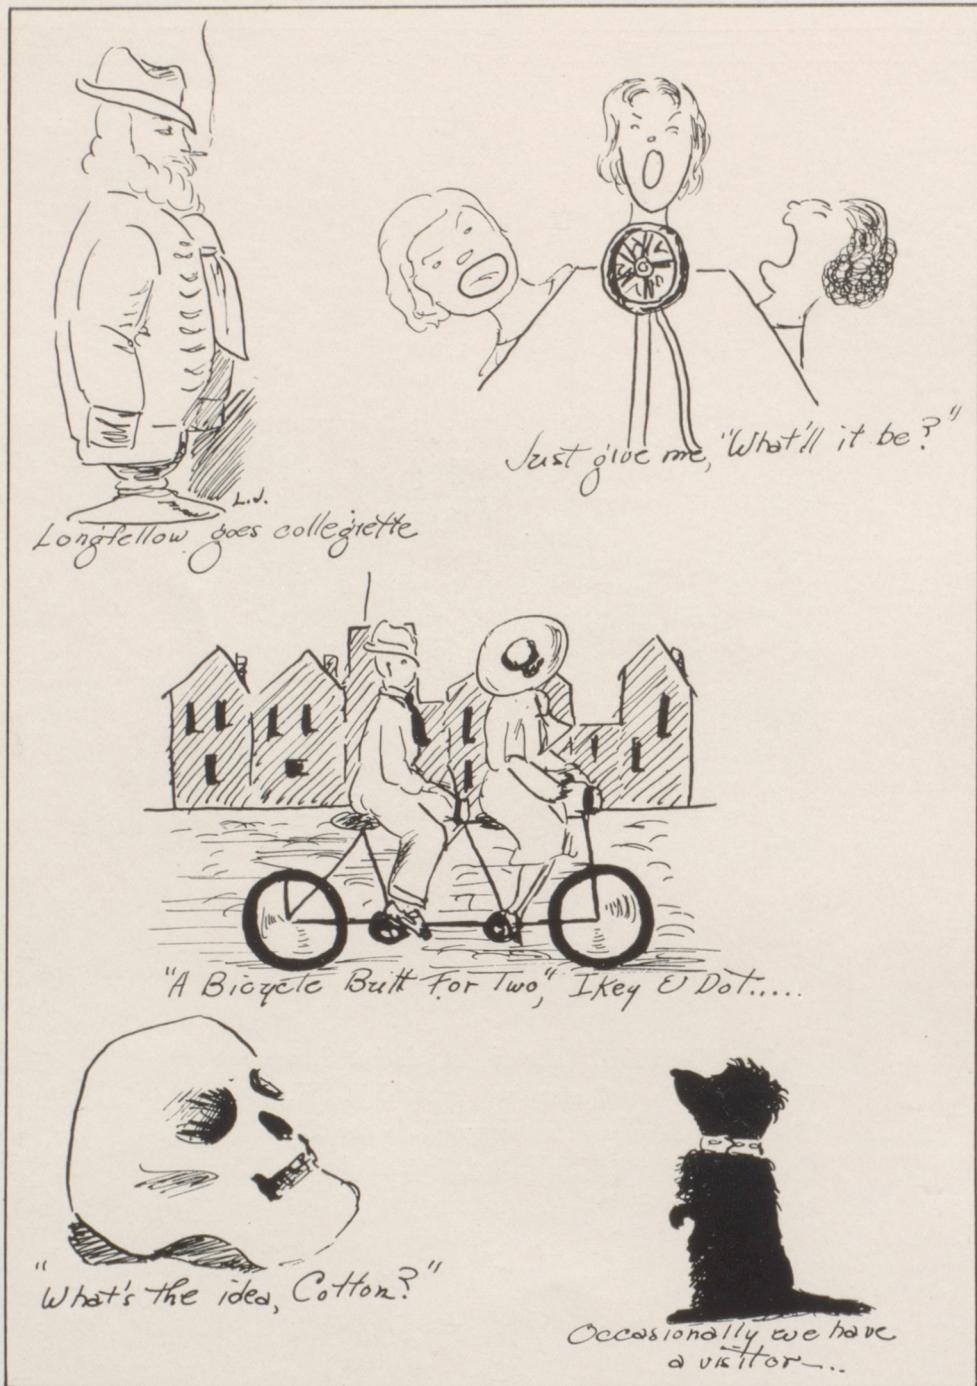

The team, though not as large this year as that of last, was very clever and speedy, and we are looking forward to next year hoping that it will be one of the most successful seasons that our Junior High School teams have ever enjoyed.

A SENIOR'S LAMENT

When at last the junior year is past,
I thought that all the worst I'd passed.

I thought that I could play and sing,
And blithely graduate next spring.

But now I've found—sad to relate
It costs a lot to graduate.

I have to pay my senior dues,
And buy a lot of clothes and shoes.

I have to have my picture "took,"
To decorate the annual "book."

Those photographs cost like sin
To ship to all my kith and kin.

To raise this huge amount of dough
I'll have to hock my coat I know

Or simply stay around and flunk
Until the death of my rich "unk."

them flies when he had them in his ark?"

Miss Dobbins: "Class is dismissed."

ON LEAVING J. H. S.

The year . . . is . . . done and . . . everyone is . . . just . . . a little glad . . . to see . . . our woe . . . and studies go . . . but still . . . we're sorta . . . sad . . . we've had . . . some fun . . . and everyone . . . has learned a . . . thing . . . or two . . . we're all . . . relieved but . . . sorta grieved . . . to think . . . it all . . . is through . . . each darn . . . exam . . . has made . . . us scramble through . . . our heads . . . for answers . . . until we bawl our . . . brains are all . . . devitilized by cancers . . . but Thursday night . . . twill all be right for that's our graduation . . . when we'll be told . . . that . . . when we're . . . old . . . we'll run . . . this mighty nation . . . our suits . . . we've bought and think . . . they ought to make . . . a great . . . impression . . . each girl . . . I guess . . . has got her dress in spite . . . of this depression . . . now its through . . . what shall we . . . do . . . work in the . . . fields . . . this summer . . . or worka . . . while . . . and then in style . . . go hit the road . . . a thumber . . . I guess . . . we'll . . . live although I'd give . . . a lot . . . to know again . . . the fun we've . . . had both good . . . and bad . . . the sunshine and the rain.

WHY WE ARE SO DUMB

"The more we study, the more we know,
The more we know, the more we forget,
The more we forget, the less we know,
The less we forget, the more we know,
So why study?"

Thompson Childress (to barber): "I want a shave—no hot towel, no tonic, no massage—just a plain shave."

Barber: "Would you like a little lather on your face, sir?"

Last week I visited a restaurant and saw none other than Sugar Cain sitting at the next table.

The waiter approached him and asked, "What will you have, sir?"

"A toasted cheese sandwich," replied Sugar.

"On toast, sir?" asked the waiter.

"No, bring it in on horseback," said Sugar smiling.

First Girl: "My brother doesn't drink, chew, smoke or swear."

Second Girl: "Does he make all of his own dresses to?"

Cleo Elliott (arrested for speeding): "But officer, I'm a high school student."

Cop: "Ignorance is no excuse."

TOO BAD

Little mark in English
Little mark in French
Can put a ball player
Back upon the bench.

Nod Adams: "Some day I'll have the whole world at my feet."

"C" Rauth: "What have you been doing all this time?—Walking on your hands?"

Miss McKee: "Albert, do you know who built the Ark?"

Albert Hall: "Naw."

Miss McKee: "Correct."

Freshman: "Mama, may I go out to-night?"

Sophomore: "Going out to-night, mother. Home at ten."

Junior: "Going out to-night, Dad."

Senior: "Good-night Dad, I'll bring in the milk."

Mr. Overturf: "Billy, why are you laughing?"

Billy Constantine: "Laugh and the world laughs with you."

Mr. Overturf: "But you stay after school alone."

Richard Crickmer: "Waiter, this butter is so strong it could walk over and insult the coffee."

Charles Ryle: "And this coffee is so weak that it couldn't resent it."

Johnny Utterbach: "My girl sure is dumb."

Sonny L.: "How so?"

Johnny: "Well I took her to the show and the sign on the front said 'The Woman Always Pays' and she bought the tickets."

TO THE FACULTY

If you loved us
As we love you
Even when we're dumb
You'd let us through.

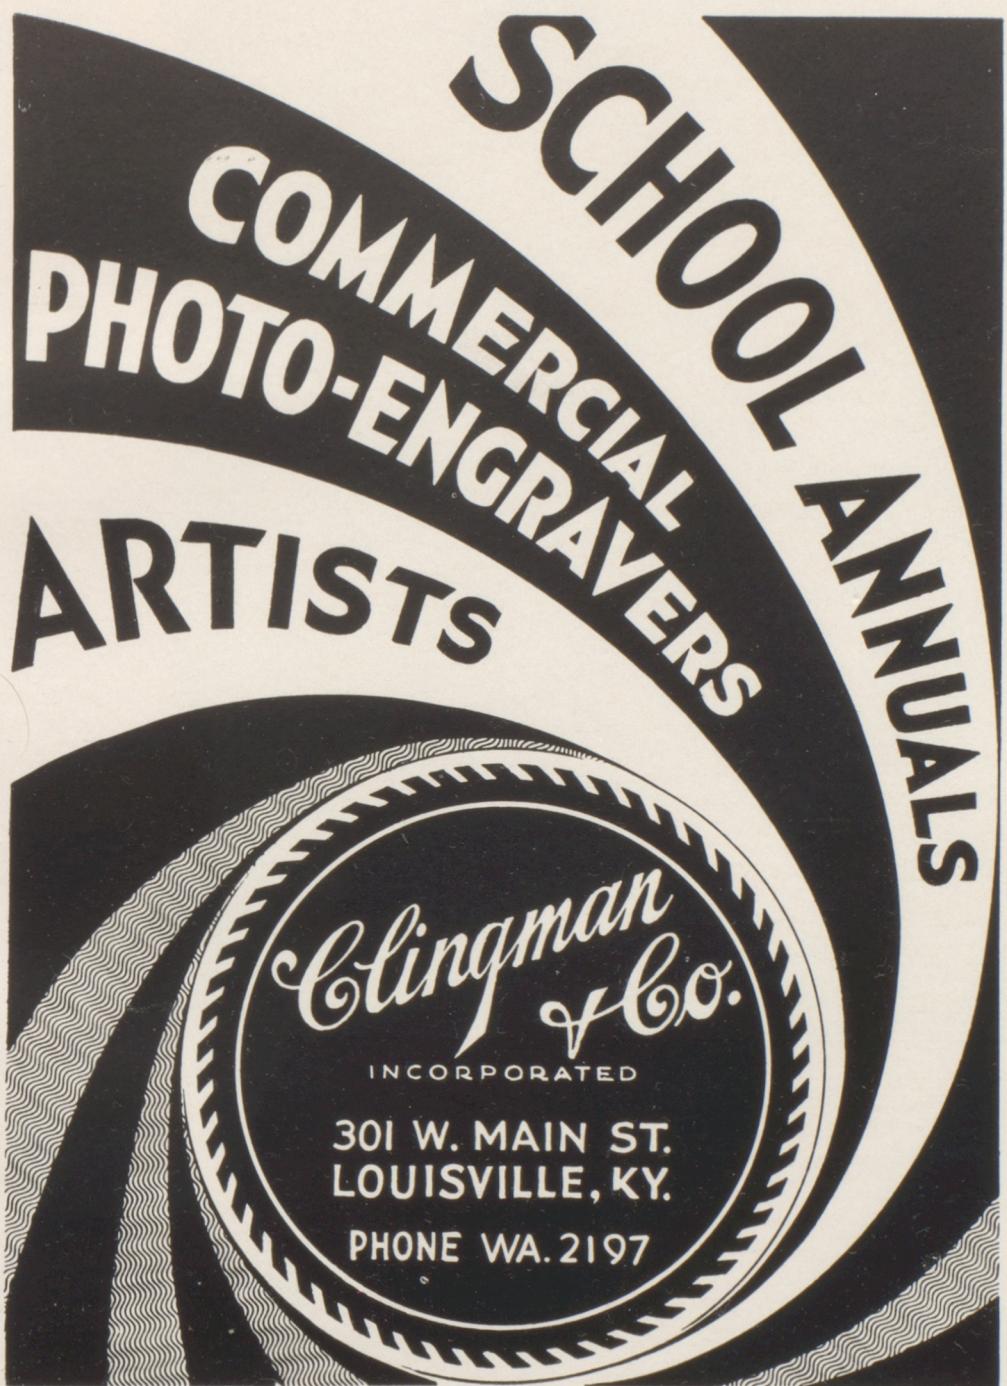

You'd gently say
Exams are bunk
And we'd need never
Fear to flunk.

If this you'd do
We'd never pine
But always be
Your Valentine.

THE STUDENTS.
